Time : 10.30 am

The Department of Mathematics, St. John's College of Arts and Science, Ammandivilai decided to organize a professional guidance program for the students on 27th July 2023. The topic of this program is "Fortune Favors The Bold". Rev. Fr. Sam F. Mathew, Secretary, St. John's College of Arts and Science, Ammandivilai acted as the Resource person of this program. The program started at 10.30 am at Multimedia Hall with prayer song sung by students from I B.Sc Mathematics. Anushya from III B.Sc Mathematics welcomed the gathering.

Resource Person's (Rev. Fr. Sam F. Mathew, Secretary) Address:

- He started his speech with a video which conveys a message that a particular character of the people around us conveying that they want help from us but they don't need us.
- He told the students the first and foremost thing is to, think by yourself, self evaluation helps us to analyse ourselves and achieve our goals.
- He played a video of a sports person who neglects the higher officials at the starting stage of his career but nowadays he shines in his career by getting precious awards from Indian Government.
- Through this video he motivated the students that please ignore the one who neglects you and hold the hands of the one who supports and motivates you whatever happens, which will help you to achieve your dreams.
- He played some more videos which shows self motivation and also he spoke about time management.
- Finally he gave them a task which took nearly 4 hours of meditation along with a pen and paper to find their mentor who supports them to achieve their dreams.
- Also he gave an open challenge to the students that after a particular year what will be their goals and will they achieve it on that particular time? He also needs that to be written in a form of letter so that it will be useful for them to achieve it on time.

After the speech of Resource Person Ms. Aslin Francy from II B.Sc Mathematics proposed the vote of thanks.
