Program Objective:

To enhance the Digital skill of Faculty Members towards a Student Centric Usage of PowerPoint Presentation for Online and In-Person Teaching.

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell organized a Faculty Development Program (FDP) on 03/09/2021 under the theme “Creating Effective Presentations for Online and In – Person teaching”. This FDP was executed as Hands on Training Program for the Faculty Members. 42 faculty members from St. John's College of Arts and Science participated in this program. Dr. Eframe Sophia Selvam, Head, Dept. of Commerce invoked the blessings of the Almighty with a Prayer. The Resource person was warmly welcomed and introduced to the gathering by Dr.M.Edwin Gnanadhas, Principal. The session was hand over to the Resource Person.

The Resource Person began his session by giving a glimpse on the usage of effective PowerPoint presentations to get the attention of the learners. He mentioned the characteristics that a student doesn't like in a presentation and the characteristics which attract them towards the teacher while presenting. He insisted that the material should be presented in short phrases rather than full paragraphs. The importance of using relevant pictures, avoiding the usage of Clip Art, minimizing the usage of animations and distractive backgrounds were highlighted by the speaker. Also the resource person stressed that students should not be asked to read the slides, instead of which information should be shared by the faculty members.

Hand on Training was conducted by the resource person through explaining the tabs available in Microsoft PowerPoint 2016. Simple exercises of PowerPoint presentation were given, to make the faculty members feel the session interactive. The Session was concluded with the felicitation address of Rev. Fr. Sam F. Mathew, Secretary and words of gratitude by the IQAC coordinator Mrs. S. Asha Parvin. Feedback was distributed among the faculty members to share their opinions and suggestions for the program.
