Internship report

We commerce department arranged a internship program for 3rd UG students in India post office payment bank from 8.12.2023 to 07.01.2023.

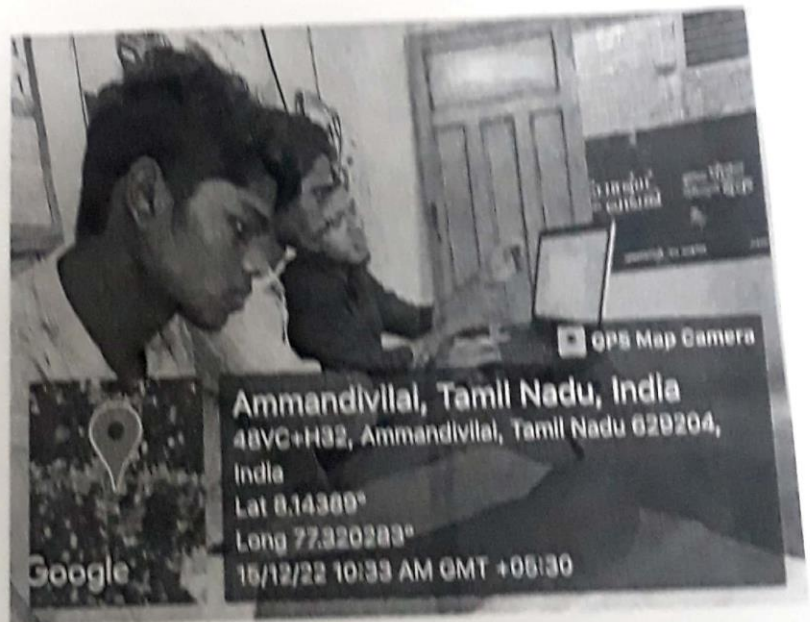

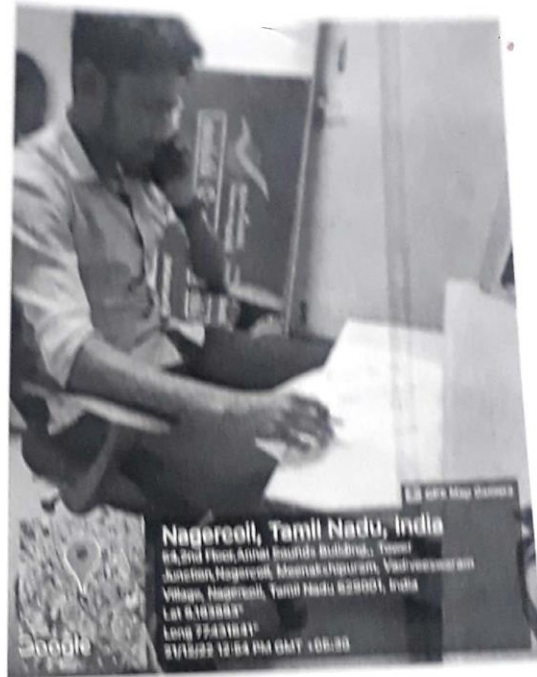

22 students were selected and divided into three groups and sent them to internship for their career development.

Because of this program they got aware of the day to day life routine of the employees in the post office. And they are understood various schemes introduced by the government in practical manner.

Based on feedback from the students and Post office higher officials we came to know that our students performed well in the internship program.
